

Camper Checklist

The staff at GRANITE RIDGE is excited to welcome you to camp! Over all the years we have been doing this camp thing, we have put together a list of essentials we believe every camper needs and will appreciate having. While this list is thorough, please check with your group leader for additional requirements they may have for you.

The following online FORMS are required to be sent in by registration (if applicable):

- Medical Information
- Liability Release

When packing, please bring the following items:

- Water Bottle – All of our water is filtered you can fill your bottle at any faucet around camp
- Clothing appropriate for the time of year and number of days you are staying
- A jacket/sweatshirt – even in the summer, it will get cold at night!
- Closed toe shoes – a must if you want to go for a bike ride or a hike!
- A bathing suit – girls must wear a one piece bathing suit or a dark shirt over a two piece. Modest Tankinis are ok. Guys must wear swimming trunks – no speedo's
- A towel (even if you are staying in Lodge)
- Sleeping bag (unless you are staying in the Lodge)
- Pillow
- Shampoo and soap – we don't mind dirty campers, but your roommates might!
- Sunscreen!!!
- A flashlight, we do not have strong outdoor lighting on purpose so you can enjoy the stars!
- Bible
- A notepad or journal and a pen
- Money for the Camp Store
- Your camera – if allowed by your group leader
- Any medication you need (all medication – even over the counter stuff must be turned in at registration)
- Fishing gear and tackle if you plan to fish

If you forget anything, we keep our Camp Store fully stocked with camp essentials such as sleeping bags, hygiene products, Granite Ridge gear, and “camp-food-groups” candy, soda, and ice-cream!

Please DO NOT bring the following:

- Weapons of any kind
- Profanity and Disrespectful speech
- Fireworks

By far the most important thing to bring to camp: an open heart and good attitude.

We can't wait to welcome you to GRANITE RIDGE!
